Oakville news

The Red Oak Baptist Church 1982 Bible Vacation School will be held next week, June 21-25 at 9:00-11:00 a.m. Children all ages are invited.

Mrs. Marshall Martin had a delightful visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Martin, Tye River, Va. recently.

Mr. and Mrs. "Bob" Martin motored to Winchester last Wednesday to attend the graduation exercises of their granddaughter, Miss Shawn Martin. They spent Wednesday night in the home of the Rev. Randolph Martin and family and returned to Oakville Thursday.

Mrs. Tom Moore underwent surgery in the Virginia Baptist Hospital last week and is doing very well.

Mrs. Lou Bryant is back in the Virginia Baptist Hospital for treatment.

Mrs. Wayne Bowman is scheduled for surgery in the Virginia Baptist Hospital this week.

We are happy to hear Mr. Len Childers returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret Hillsman, Mrs. Aubrey Moore, Mrs. Verna Moore ("Bunny") Mrs. Ernestine Beale and Mrs. Catherine Moore toured the east coast to Bar Harbor, Maine recently and reported a lovely trip.

The Mt. Comfort Bible School concluded Thursday night. It had an enrollment of approximately 60. Thanks to all who helped to make it such a successful and happy week.

The Rev. and Mrs. David Camden, Mrs. Alise Drinkard (delegate from Appomattox Circuit, Lynchburg District) Mrs. Tommy Drinkard (Lynchburg District Delegate at Large) attended the Annual Virginia Conference at Virginia Beach this week.

Miss Deanna Leigh Camden was graduated from Virginia Western Community College, Roanoke, Sunday 3:00 p.m. Those in attendance from here were: The Rev. and Mrs. David Camden, and son, Mr. David Camden and Miss Jocelyn Camden. Congratulations!

Mt. Pleasant

"For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." Romans 3:23.

Deacon Robert Chambers, Ross Edwards, Mrs. Etta Edwards, and Mrs. Odelle Chambers went to see one of the oldest members of the church, Mrs. Ann Franklin, who is in a nursing home in Blackstone. She suffered a broken hip but is able to walk really well with the aid of a walker. She is making plans to attend homecoming.

Our hats go off to all the graduates especially the ones of our church, Miss Denise Jackson, and Phyliss Bailey.

Mrs. Claudia Wooldridge plans a bake sale on June 19 in front of Food World. Come by and buy your dessert for the weekend.

We are proud of Mrs. Henerietta Johnson who has been named to the school board. She retired from teaching this year after spending 42 years in the school system. She has our support.

Bible School will begin June 21 through June 25 beginning at 6:30 p.m. on Monday.

Children's Day was postponed last Sunday. It will be held the fourth Sunday in August.

In last week County Line news, it was reported that Keith Mann would be entering Bridgewater College this fall. This was incorrect. He will be entering Lynchburg College in the fall.

Mt. Airy

"Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered." Psalm 32:1

The Golden Gospeletts from Lynchburg will be singing here on the third Sunday in June, sponsored by the Young Adult Choir.

Gravel Hill news

A large crowd attended preaching services at the Gravel Hill Baptist Church last Sunday, as a young man of God stood on his feet, the Rev. Howcott, seven years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Berkley, Sr. were very glad to have all their children home last weekend.

Mrs. Flossie Bowen remains on the sick list in Washington, D. C. Our prayers are with her at this time.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to Mr. Walter Carter family in the loss of his brother.

The sermon which the Rev. James Miller preached at the Gravel Hill Baptist Church last Sunday was very uplifting.

See you next week.

Longwood alumni to meet

The Appomattox Chapter Longwood College Alumni Association will meet on Saturday, June 26 at 10:00 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Yvonne Paulette.

There is no charge and alumni, current students at Longwood College and new students are cordially invited.

For reservations and directions, guests are asked to call Betsy Carter, 352-7890 or Carolyn Coleman, 352-5191 by June 23.

Shower honors Miss Lawson

Miss Rindy Lawson, bride elect, was guest of honor at a party on Saturday, June 12 given by Mrs. Dan Coleman and Mrs. Ray Noble at the Coleman home.

Friends and neighbors gathered to give Miss Lawson an old fashioned 'kitchen pounding'.

All gifts were useful kitchen items and each guest also presented the honoree with 'tried and true' recipes.

An arrangement of pink roses, corabelle, and baby's breath centered the refreshment table from which a light buffet was served.

Among guests attending were Mrs. Fred Lawson, mother of the bride; Mrs. Grover Smith, grandmother of the bride; and Mrs. Harry Lawson, aunt of the bride, and friends.

Miss Lawson will wed Mr. Roy Dunn on Saturday, June 26, in the Memorial United Methodist Church.

Reedy Spring slates Bible school

Horse show slated

Appomattox and Toga are preparing for a horse show that is reminiscent of those held in the area in bygone days. It will be held at the Toga Community Center. The big day is Saturday, June 19 with June 26 as an alternate date in the event of heavy rains.

Twenty one (21) classes are scheduled in the afternoon beginning at 1:00 p.m. An additional eighteen (18) classes will be presented in the evening starting at 6:30 p.m.

Both English and Western riders will have many opportunities to present their horses. Refreshments will be served on the grounds.

This show is presented as a joint effort of the Toga Community Center and the Equus Saddle Club of Appomattox and is made possible by the sponsorship of many local merchants and businessmen.

Info added

Editor's Note: The following information was not available in time for inclusion in last week's Appomattox County High School graduation issue.

Attending Central Virginia Community College in the fall will be 1982 ACHS graduates Jacqueline Annette Evans and Richard Lewis Guill. Wenda Susan Lee will be entering National Business College in the fall.

The class motto of the class of 1982, "What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared with what lies within us," was submitted by Kimberly Scott Chenault.

Julie Riddlebarger honored

Julie Kay Riddlebarger, daughter of Ray and Kay Riddlebarger of Concord, has been selected to attend the Governor's School for the Gifted at Longwood College June 20 through July 17. Her choices of study are creative writing and philosophy.

A member of the junior class of Rustburg High School, Julie participated in the Latin, French, Tri-Hi-Y clubs, weather, debate, one-act play, and forensic teams.
